Hitchcock Nature Center: Special Speaker Event An Evening with John Liu

Honey Creek, IA – Join us on Friday, September 29th at 7:00 p.m. at Hitchcock Nature Center for a special evening with world renowned filmmaker & Loess Hills expert John Liu.

John D. Liu has documented the rehabilitation of China's Loess Plateau since 1995. He will be joining us in Iowa's own Loess Hills to share his findings & experience in this informative presentation. Following the presentation attendees may enjoy conversation with the presenter at a reception in the Loess Hills Lodge gallery.

Pre-registration is required as space is limited. Register online in minutes at www.pottcoconservation.com or call 712-545-3283 for more information. This program is being presented as part of our adult education programming, we ask that attendees be 14 years of age or older.

Attendees must purchase a $2.00 per vehicle daily entrance pass or have a valid Pottawattamie County Parks annual permit to attend this program. Daily entrance passes may be purchased with exact change or check at the front gate & may be purchased on the day of the event. Annual permits may be purchased for $10.00 from staff at any of our parks or at the Loess Hills Lodge at Hitchcock Nature Center during regular business hours. There is no additional fee to attend this program, free will donations are encouraged and will support continued programming opportunities in Pottawattamie County.

This event, presented in conjunction with the Loess Hills Heritage Week, and is part of a series of programming opportunities being presented throughout the Loess Hills from September 23rd through October 1st, 2017.

While this event is human friendly it is not pet friendly, please leave your canine friends at home. Service animals are always welcome.

2017 programs sponsored by the Pottawattamie Conservation Foundation.
